the Dy Comr Hassan
No 105 Dy 1st Oct 94
from the Dy Comr, Kadur No 1543/56 Dy 30th Sept 1894 from the Excise Comr in Mysore

The Sale notice should contain a few specific con-ditions necessarily needed by Govt to ensure recovery of the Revenue and a few others of a general character which may be deemed of sufficient importance in the interests of Govt and the public to such enforcement. These are briefly set forth in the draft I would recommend for adoption.

I have Consulted the Legislative Secy as regards the attestation of the acceptance and the forms given at foot of the sale notice, and he concurred with me that there was nothing illegal and the draft had decided advantages over the old elaborate procedure which the present simple and practical plan proposes to supersede.

Correspondence ending with letter No. 3251/315 dated 15th February 1896 from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

Also.— Letter No. 3816/388 dated 27th March/96 from the same Officer.

Order thereon.—

The Government has had under its consideration for some time past the subject of issuing a set of Rules for the exclusive privilege of drawing Toddy from Bagni trees for consumption and sale and the grant of Licenses and Passes allowed for. But the Rules proposed by the Excise Commissioner being too elaborate involving risk of undue interference with private rights, they were allowed to lie over and the existing practice of selling the Shops yearly was ordered to be continued.

2 The Excise Commissioner drew Mr. Briggs to notice that in the absence of Rules regulating the grant of Licenses, the Magistracy declined to entertain charges against persons selling Bengal Toddy without Licenses, and therefore solicited early orders on the draft Notification submitted with his letter No 86 of 5th July 1894.

3. Under these circumstances under the provisions of section 55 of the Excise Act XXII of 1881,

2. The proposed Counterpart — engagement at foot of the Sale notice accepting the same, the undersigned thinks will Suffice.

3. There appears to be no necessity, however, to publish the Sale Istihar in in the Gazette in future. The local Hale Paikees and Amins take up the Vend Farms usually. Scarcely an outsider comes forward to bid. — The sales may be notified in the Taluks as usual, and this is quite sufficient for all practical purposes.

4. Further no "Kistabandi" — System is needed in collecting the Sale amounts under this head. The small amounts may be collected at once, and in a few cases, the larger sums in two or three instal= = ments. Vide the particulars of — Sale amounts noted on the margin

5. The collection suiting the local circumstances may be left to the Revenue Officers. It is submitted that it is quite superfluous to prescribe monthly "Kists" extending over the whole year, as it unnecessarily retards the collection.

As the Excise Commissioner is evidently in error. The very important Sections granted by the "Collector" to "Private" and "Public" Distillers, and "Warehouse" Keepers have been omitted in my proposed Sale Notice, and it is essential that they should be inserted in the Sale Notice, it is, I think, the place of the Licenses as soon as the Farmer is prepared to issue the purchasers and the "acceptance" at foot of each is only signed. When this is done in duplicate one copy can be sent to the Dy. Com[missione]r & the Amildar handed over to the Farmer with the confirmatory order granted by the Amildar in red ink and sealed and attested by him when the Dy. Com[missione]r accepts the bid & the Farmer pays the bid & the Bail & Security is furnished as security is furnished & the security provided for & I'll give the notice at foot of the Sale Notice. The object is to save time & trouble both to the Farmer & actual commission in hunting up the Statutes & attorney Rules to type the Bonds & accept the Deeds: & once the acceptance is signed, (when all are present at the Sales) all the conditions can be legally enforced thereafter - & there can be no delay in executing thereafter. [illegible]

P.S. I have in the case of Dare ... back and Farmer & consulted the Legislative Secy. and he gave it as his opinion that the forms prepared by me as to part of the Sale Notices are quite legal & fully meet all the requirements of the Laws - What is to be done in the above 2 items can with equal reason be made to apply to the items of Bagnal Dodd, to which all these restrictions &c applicable - & Govt do not want to enforce any except the few absolutely necessary -
